

Kentucky Perinatal Quality Collaborative

KyPQC BULLETIN

All pilot hospitals participating in the KyPQC First Initiatives Second Cohort have been onboarded!

AIM Patient Safety Bundles

AIM has released the Perinatal Mental Health Conditions Patient Safety Bundle to address pre-existing or newly onset mood disorders, anxiety-related disorders, depression, post-traumatic stress disorder, obsessive-compulsive disorder, bipolar disorder, and psychosis during pregnancy or within one year of delivery. Click the box to learn more.

Learn More

KyPQC 2023 Annual Meeting

We are already planning the KyPQC Fall Annual Meeting! This one-day learning and networking extravaganza will be hosted in-person with the option for participants to connect virtually. We need your help! Please click the box below to volunteer for the KyPQC 2023 Fall Annual Meeting Planning Committee.

Learn More

KyPQC Webinar Series

Hannah Fischer, MD, will present Developing, Testing, and Implementing Interventions to Improve Care on Friday, March 24, at 1:00-2:00 PM EDT. Click the box to register. Participants in the live event may be eligible for CEU credits in nursing or social work by also signing up in advance for Train course # 1108119.

Learn More

KyPQC Next Steps

- The KyPQC will highlight the implementation of KyPQC First Initiatives at the KPHA Annual Conference poster presentation.
- The KyPQC Maternal Mortality (MM) Task Force will meet next on Thursday, April 20 at 3:00-5:00 EDT.
- Check your calendars for updates to the KyPQC Steering Committee, All Workgroup, and Leads meeting schedules.
- Congratulations to Jordan Murphy, MPH, as she transitions to a new epidemiology position in the Viral Hepatitis Program within KDPH.